Kartrice Greaves*

Kartrice Greaves, known to most as Monique, is homegrown in America's Sweetest Town. She is a Clewiston High Tiger (1997) that went on to receive a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education from Florida Agricultural & Mechanical University (2001). After graduating from college Monique returned home and started teaching in Palm Beach County School District at Rosenwald Elementary School in South Bay, FL. After a life altering automobile accident, Monique took some time off from teaching. During her time off Monique got married to Jeremy Greaves and shortly after became a mother of two children, Jeremy Joshua Greaves Jr. and Imani Monique Greaves. Monique missed educating children but did not want to return to the public school system, so she took a leap of faith and Founded a daycare Little Disciples Learning Center. After only being in business for a few years she expanded her business and Founded a second location Little Disciples Learning Center II. Monique, being a homegrown girl, wanted to give back to her community and after much prayer founded Divine Intervention Motivational Experience (DIME). DIME, established in 2012, provides after school activities like modeling, cooking, sowing, different genres of dance, guitar, Djembe drums, and mentorship for elementary and middle school aged students. Monique has also founded "Sowing Women" a ministry that meets monthly for encouragement, empowerment, and devotion while doing arts and crafts. Monique sits on various different boards and offers her wisdom in business and nonprofit work to many. Monique's favorite scripture is Romans 8:28 "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."
