Special Guest Speaker

JENNIFER SHEPHARD LESTER

Psychotherapist, Entrepreneur, Life Coach, Motivational Speaker and Author

Affectionately known as the "Self-Help Queen", Jennifer Shephard Lester is a psychotherapist, child advocate, entrepreneur, life coach, motivational speaker, and author. For more than 20 years, she has been a leader in behavioral change, working with federal programs and in private practice. She was featured as one of Atlanta's top Doctors & Health Care Professionals in Who's Who in Black Atlanta™ 15th Edition for her work in mental health.

In 2008, Lester established The Purpose Project, LLC, a multidisciplinary behavioral healthcare practice that offers mental health services, life coaching, leadership training, and nonprofit management. The Purpose Project has a proven track record of influencing positive change in organizations, individuals, and families.

Jennifer has received numerous awards for her dedication to improving local communities and empowering others. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. and The National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc. She also serves on several boards and committees.

Lester is the author of "14 Ways to Find Your Amazing: When Passion and Purpose Collide". She is committed to helping people live with passion, power, and productivity.
